LOT SMITH CIRCLE IS REORGANIZED

Now Known as Gen. Geo. Washington Circle No. 6, Ladies Of the G. A .R.

MRS. M. M. FISHER, PRESIDENT

Mrs. Nellie L. Lyon, Who Made Utah Department Possible, Honored As a Delegate.

The Lot Smith Circle No. 5, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was organized last April, has been re-organized and is now known as the General George Washington

MRS. MARGARET M. FISHER.

Circle No. 6. Ladies of the Grand Circle No. 6, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mrs. Ellenor B. Burns, department president, reorganized the circle and installed the officers, for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. Margaret M. Fisher, president; Mrs. Margaret M. Fisher, president; Mrs. Ella F. Squires, senior vice-president; Mrs. Ella D. Bishop, junior vice-president; Mrs. Ella D. Bishop, junior vice-president; Mrs. Lydia J. Perry, conductor; Mrs. Lydia J. Perry, conductor; Mrs. Elmmeline Sprowl, guard; Mrs. Elizabeth T. Crismon, delegate; Mrs. Mary T. Rawlins, alternate delegate. These, together with Mrs. E. J. Bennion, Mrs. Eliza Platt, Miss Louie Platt, Mrs. Geneva T. Croft, Mrs. Peter Cornia, Mrs. Nellie Sorenson, and Mrs. Harriet Cornia Davis, will be charter members. The organization was first made in the absence of Mrs. Nellie Lyon, national organizer, by Mrs. Mary Hoag, past president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., who had been commissioned to do the work, and obligated the members of the Lot Smith Circle in April; Mrs. Mary Grovenor, past president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., in-Army of the Republic. Mrs. Ellenor

April; Mrs. Mary Grovenor, past presi-dent of the Ladies of the G. A. R., in-

MRS. LYON HONORED. Since that time, largely through the efforts of Mrs. Nellie L. Lyon, who made a department in Utah possible, the new department of the Ladies of the G. A. R. has been formed. .The Utah department of Ladies of the Grand Army honored Mrs. Lyon by electing her delegate at large from Grand Army honored Mrs. Lyon by electing her delegate at large from that honorable body to the national convention, upon the occasion of the G. A. R. encampment at Atlantic City, N. J. Mrs. Lyons is the daughter. ter of a Lot Smith veteran, Moroni Woodruff Alexander. She was well received by the convention and treated with all courtesy. During the encampment a beautiful silver cup, bearing the state seal, the flag and the sego the state seal, the hag and the sego jilly, was presented to the national president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. by the department of Utah. Owing to some differences the charter was withheld from the Lot Smith circla antil after the encampment, making it necessary to effect a new organization.

Mrs. Lyon presented the new organization with two beautiful silk

The General George Washington circle will hold its regular monthly meeting on the afternoon of the first Friday of each month, at 2 o'clock, in the Twelfth-Thirteenth ward Relief rooms, corner Fourth East and Secrooms, corner Fourth East and Second South street, Salt Lake City. The wives and daughters of Lot Smith men are eligible to membership and invited to attend. The Lot Smith veterans are also invited to become honorary members. All veterans of the Lot Smith company are invited to send in their names and addresses to Mrs. Margaret M. Fisher, 724 east Twelfth South street, Salt Lake City.

NOT SORRY FOR BLUNDER.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed yietim of consumption. I might not be alive now." writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooning cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free, Guaranteed by Z. C. M. I., 112-114 Main St., Salt Lake City. NOT SORRY FOR BLUNDER.

TWO DAYS SPECIAL,

Koffe-et served free with meals— Annex Cafeteria. Across from Taber-

You Will Escape

care of detail. The prompt service gives laundry comfort. Of course we use only SOFT-ENED and FILTERED WATER

TROY LAUNDRY, THE LAUNDRY OF QUALITY. Both Phones 182. . 165 MAIN ST

Absolutely Pure The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar No Alum, No Lime Phosphate

BRINGING BODY HOME.

Mother of Joseph H. Taylor Accompanying Body Home,

It is expected that the body of Joseph H. Taylor, who died while on a mission Germany, will arrive in Salt Lake in the early part of December. The body will be accompanied by his mother, brother, Thomas E., Jr., and sister Em-Joseph H. Taylor was born Jan. 28, 1888, at 49 south First West, and was the son of Thomas E. and Emma L. Taylor. He was educated in the public schools and later attended the L. D. S. university. He went on a mission to Germany in September, 1999, being gone a little over a year when he was stricken down. His mother and sister, Emma, were in New York to meet his brother Thomas E., Jr., when they received word that he was sick. They immediately left for Europe and were with him at the end. Besides Lis father and mother the following brothers and sisters survive him: Mrs. George O. Osler of Nephi, Anna H., Emma H., Eleanor H., John H., Lawrence H., and George H. and Thomas E. Taylor, Jr.

FUNERAL OF JOHN KIRKMAN.

Well Known Citizen Laid to His Last

After impressive services, John Kirknan, who died Tuesday, was laid to rest in the city cemetery. The speakers paid a well earned tribute to a useful ter, Lancashire, England, Nov. 1, 1830, and at an early age joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, He was an active member in that, branch, being leader of the choir which became noted under his able leadership. In 1856 he came to Utah, crossing the plains as teamster for Nicholas Groesbeck. He located in Nephi, Juab county, and was married there to the late Elizabeth Jackson Kirkman. He was one of the first settlers of Moroni, passing through all the hardships and privations incident to the Black Hawk war, in which he was commissary. Coming to Salt Lake in 1870, he located in the Tenth ward. He has filled positions of note, both ecclesiastical and civil, and was a faithful and energetic member of the Church.

JOHN KIRKMAN

On Jan. 25, 1902, he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never fully recovered and he died Nov. 15, 1910, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Keddington. He was a member of the old folks committee from its organization. He is survived by five sons and three daughters, 25 grandchildren and five grent-grandchildren.

GUN CLUB PROTESTS.

Not at All Pleased With Enlargement Of Canal.

The New State Gun club filed a protest with the city recorder Friday afternoon against the enlargement of the surplus canal, ordered by the city council with the idea that the increased canal capacity will obviate the danger of floods by taking care of the high water in the Jordan river.

The protest, which is signed by H. S. Margetts, president, and E. L. Thomas, secretary, of the club, advises that the club will insist upon the protection of secretary, secretary as reparted the protection of the rights as riparian owners and appropriators.

The protest follows:

"The undersigned, who are riparian owners upon the Jordan river north of what is commonly known as the surplus canal, and also owners by appropriation of the rights to the use of the ratural flow of the waters of the Jordan river north of said point, being advised that the city intends to open a new and additional channel to carry the flow of waters of the Jordan river to the Great Sait lake, hereby advise and notify Salt Lake City that they will at all times insist upon the enjoy-ment of their legal rights as such riparian owners and appropriators."

DISCUSS HYDRAULICS.

The Utah Society of Engineers held well attended meeting Friday evening in the Newhouse building rooms, when F. H. Kleinschmidt read a paper on "Utah's Reservoirs and Water Stor age Systems, Present and Prospective,' age systems, Present and Prospective, giving a detailed explanation of the various reservoirs in the state, their construction, capacity and areas watered. State Engineer Tanner led in the discussions, showing the need of hydrographic surveys, and telling what had already been accomplished. Prof. Lyman spoke on the necessity of greater economy in the use of irriga-Lyman spoke on the necessity of greater economy in the use of irrigation water, and explained the failure of the Melville dam. The society goes next Saturday to Brigham City over the electric lines, stopping at the Lagoon and Ogden canyon power plants for inspection.

THANKSGIVING. THANKSGIVING.

To enjoy the Day thoroughly and once more visit the old Folks at Home and all your Friends. YOU should take advantage of the LOW EXCURSION RATES and EXCELLENT TRAIN SERVICE offered by THE SALT LAKE ROUTE. Tickets on sale between all stations on the Salt Lake Route in Utah and to all Stations on Salt Lake & Mercur and San Pete Valley, November 23rd and 24th, good returning Nov. 28th, 1910.

FUNERAL OF CORA S. H. BAKER,

Service Held Yesterday at Family Residence.

The funeral of Mrs. Cora S. H. Baker, who died Wednesday morning at the Dr. W. H. Groves L. D. S. hospital, was held from the family residence, 363 Was nent from the lamby restretce, so tharrison avenue yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. F. W. Bussard of the English Lutheran church. Music was furnished by the Graham quartet. The home was filled to overflowing with sorrowing relatives and friends of the deceased. Interment was in the Mt. Olivet competery.

deceased. Interment was in the ML. Oilvet cemetery.

Mrs. Baker was born at Randolph, Riley county, Kansas, Dec. 11, 1885. Coming to Utah when a girl, she resided at Lehi for a time. She was a resident of Salt Lake for the past 12 years. On December 15, 1908, she was united in marriage of A. Fred Baker. She was taken ill early Tuesday morning, and sank so rapidly that she was taken to the baspital at midnight, passing away sank so rapidly that she was taken to the hospital at midnight, passing away a few hours afterward. Besides her husband, she is survived by her father, Charles H. Selby of Hyrum; a brother, Arthur Selby of Mercur; a sister, Mrs. E. Bert Williams of Salt Lake. Of the husband's family, his mother, Mrs. T. J. Baker, Sr., three brothers, Thomas J., Earl and Irving, a sister, Mrs. Ella McDonald, all of Salt Lake, survive.

MEGANTIC SPOKEN.

White Star Steamship Due to Arrive In Liverpool Sunday Morning,

A telegram received this morning at the office of the First presidency from the White Star Dominica line brings the information that the steamship Meguatte has been reported and is due to arrive at Liverpool early Sunday morning. On this steamship are the following: George N. Wilams, Horace F. Egan, Sidney A. Brighton, Sait Lake City; Ernest J. Wright, Joseph A. Orton, Ogden; John E. Bewen, Jr., Edward Williams, Spanish Fork; F. C. Sorenson, Spring City; Geo. Heaps, Peter Andreason, Smithfield; David A. Matheson, Parowan; Albert T. Smith, Clearfield; Herman L. Peurson, Plymouth, Boxelder county; E. W. Olsen, Oxford, Idaho; John E. Christensen, Central, Idaho, and other Utah and Idaho passengers. White Star Dominica line brings the in-

MONDAY AND TUESDAY.

We will serve free, with meals, de-licious Koffe-et. Annex Cafeteria. Across from Tabernacle.

HERE IN RESPLENDENT ATTIRE

Attired in a striking uniform of scarlet, black and gold with black ridng boots and shining spurs, Walter MacDonald, member of the Royal Northwestern Mounted Police, is a visitor in the city. Mr. MacDonald was released from service on account of ill health and is traveling around the country to recuperate. He says that it is like summer down here to the side of riding out on the great prairies at this time in Canada.

SALT LAKERS DELAYED.

Misses Clayton and Kimball on Board One of Colliding Vessels.

The dispatch printed in Thursday vening's News, stating that the steamship Prinz Firedrich Wilhelm, bound from New York, had colbound from New York, had collided with a French vessel and had been forced to return to port, caused anxiety here among the friends of Miss Sybella Clayton and Miss Mary H. Kimball, who were known to have sailed on the steamship. Dispatches received by the friends of the ladles here immediately reassured them, however. The telegrams from both say that the damage to the boat, while though at first to be slight, was found to be serious, and that the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm had to delay her departure until tomorrow, the 20th when is will sail with the two Sait Lake ladies abourd.

aboard,
Miss Clayton's family felt some anxiety on account of her health, as she had been threatened with tonsilitis, but Miss Kimball's telegram conveyed the news that she was improved and able to sail for her destination in Berlin.

Get This Fact Clear

Health depends principally on proper food.

Grape=Nuts

is a scientifically prepared food for building up Body, Brain and Nerves to their highest efficiency-health!

Whether one works with hands or head, Grape-Nuts food will help.

"There's a Reason"

Postum Cereal Company, Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

NEXT WEEK IN HISTORY

NOV. 20.

1891-William James Florence (Ber-nard Conlin), popularly known as "Billy Florence," comedian, died;

909-The eighth United States circuit court, sitting as a court of appeals, ordered the Standard Oil corpora-tion to dissolve. Consuelo, dowager duchess of Manchester, called the most influential woman in Eng-land, died in London; born Yznaga, in Louisiana, 1858. NOV. 21.

871—Public honors extended to the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia in New York city.

1886—Charles Francis Adams, author and diplomat, who was United States minister to England during the Civil war and an arbitrator in the Alabama claims case, died; born 1807.

92-The French chamber of deputies voted amid great excitement to investigate the financial affairs of the De Lessens Panama canal.

—Garret A. Hobart, vice president of the United States, died; born

NOV. 22.

1643—Robert Cavaller Sieur de la Salle, explorer of the Mississippi valley, born; killed in Texas in 1687. 783—John Hanson, first president of the Continental congress under the articles of confederation, died born 1715.

Alabama. NOV. 23. 1804—Franklin Pierce, fourteenth president of the United States, president of the United States, born; died 1859. 1816—Charlotte Cushman, tragic ac-tress, born; died 1876. 1909—David A, De Armond, one of the oldest and best known Democratic members of Congress, died at Butler, Mo.; born 1844.

NOV. 24. 1807—Joseph Brant (Thayendanegea), famous Mohawk chief, died in

-William B. Astor, eldest son John Jacob Astor, died in New York city; born there 1792.

| 1829—Shelby Moore Cullom, states-man, born in Wayne county, Ky. 1909—Great meteorite split and fell in | 1890—August Belmont, noted banker and politician, died; born 1818, 1903—Julian Rix, talented landscape painter, died

NOV, 25 NOV, 25.

1783—Evacuation of New York city by the British, the last position held by them in the colonies, 1864—Battle of Mission Ridge, Tenn. 1886—Erastus Brooks, noted New York journalist and politician, died; born 1815.

1902—Colonel Thomas P. Ochiltree, noted Texan wit, died; born 1840.

NOV. 26.

NOV. 26.

1726—Oliver Wolcott, one of the "signers," born; died 1797.

1778—The Hawaiian archipelago discovered by Captain Cook, who named it the "Sandwich Islands." Cook was killed there by the natives in 1779. tives in 1779.

Millinery Half Price

Now comes Z. C. M. I.'s great headwear sale. Every trimmed hat in the department included in these impelling reductions, excepting only fur hats. A superb showing of the newest and most artistic styles here for your approval at . . Half Price

Everything else in the department at One-fourth Off ing from 25 to 30 per cent.

Long and Short Kimonos and Dressing Sacques One-fourth Off

A beautiful variety representing the very best styles, workmanship and materials in fleeced goods and flannelettes, Dutch neck and high neck, floral, Persian and Oriental designs, stripes and figures. Price range from $1.75 to $4.50 your choice now at-

One-fourth Off

Buy Your Carpet Size Rugs Now and Save Money

This is an exceptionally appropriate sale coming just as it does when the plans for new floor coverings are under way. All this season's goods and there's a splendid variety to select from

	price	now	$57.50
9	$\begin{array}{cccccccccccccccccccccccccccccccccccc$	now	\$30.00
9	ft. by 12 ft. Smith's Regular Velvet, regular $30.00	now	$23.50
9	ft. by 12 ft. Smith's Wilton Velvet, regular $37.50	now	$30.00
9	ft. by 12. ft. Cordo Velvet, to close, regular $27.50	now	$17.50
9	ft by 12 ft. Smith's Regular Axminster, regular $32.50	now	$21.50
9	ft. by 12 ft. Smith's Saxony Axminster, regular $30.00	now	$20.00
9	ft. by 12 ft. Roxbury Tapestry Brussels, 10 wire. $27.50 regular price	now	$20.00
9	ft. by 12 ft. Phillip's 10 wire, regular $25.00	now	$18.75
9	ft. by 12 ft. Nipper 9 wire, regular $22.50 price	now	$16.00
9	ft. by 12 ft. Best Fiber Rug, regular $17.50	now	$12.50
9	ft. by 12 ft. Manor Tapestry, 8 wire, regu-$18.50	now	$13.50
A few extra large sizes at exceptional price reductions.  ALL SMALL RUGS INCLUDED IN THIS SALE, full line to select from at reductions rang-

Folding Waste Paper Baskets in Linen department only 15c

9 ft. by 12 ft. French Wilton Carpet, regular CO 00

Navajo Blankets

Each one genuine. Fine variety direct from the Navajo Indian Reservation to select from

20%

STREET WINDOW DISPLAY.

